RISING TO THE FUTURE

See how Shenandoah University is... MAKING AN IMPACT at su.edu.

We've been through a lot together in the last year and a half. We've gotten creative in order to stay on top even while we, as a world, were going through one of the hardest times we've ever experienced.

Shenandoah University has survived and thrived, launching new programs and certificates, creating partnerships to further the experiences offered to our students, fostering the culture of wellness throughout our community, excelling nationally in competitions and rankings, and serving the local community in numerous ways. We plan to welcome students back to campus in the fall, and we will continue to make their dreams come true.

We couldn't do any of this without your support, and we cannot continue to set and achieve our goals without your steadfast loyalty to Shenandoah. If you want to keep rising with us into the future, please consider giving a gift to Shenandoah by June 30, 2021.
